

EQUINE TRANSPORT LICENCE

Who needs an Equine Transport Licence?

Anybody transporting a horse for 'economic activity' – all trainers / employees who transport to and from racing are required to have an Equine Transport licence.

How long does the licence last?

10 years

What is the penalty for not having a licence?

Penalty for not holding the licence when transporting horses includes the vehicle being impounded.

Please see the legislation in full at DAFM

How to get an Equine Transport licence

RACE (Racing Academy & Centre of Education), Kildare
14th September 2017

€150 per person

Booking is essential as places are limited (only a few spaces left)

You can download the booking form here or visit their website

Additional course dates (and large group options) may be available subject to demand, please let us know if you or your employees would like to avail of a course but will not be available on 14 September 2017.

